

Superabounding Grace

Romans 5:12-21

Adam is considered the representative head of the human race, and sin entered the world through him. (Romans 5:12)

By Adam's sin, death passed to all. (1 Corinthians 15:21-22)

God's law exposed sin as sin, revealing humanity's need before God. (Romans 5:20)

The grace of God in Jesus Christ superabounds over sin and death. (Romans 5:15, 5:17, 5:20)

Those who have received God's grace can reign in life through Christ. (Romans 5:17, 5:20-21)

Through our union with Christ, we can walk in "newness of life." (Romans 6:3-4)
